Michael C. Boteler and Gregory Bailey, Trial Attorneys of the U.S. Department of Justice, Todd A. Brown, Assistant United States Attorney, and J. Carlton Taylor, attorney for the Defendant, pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(A) and (c)(1)(B), as amended, have, with the authorization of the undersigned Defendant, heretofore entered into discussions with a view towards reaching a pretrial conclusion of the charges pending in the Superseding Indictment and a Plea Agreement has been reached by said parties.

GOVERNMENT'S PROVISIONS

1. For the purpose of calculating the Defendant's sentence under the United States Sentencing Guidelines, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), the Government and the Defendant agree that the following Guidelines calculations apply. The Government and the Defendant reserve the right to argue for or against the applicability of any other Guidelines calculations or provisions:

- a. That on Count 1, the Defendant's criminal liability for sentencing purposes is a fraud loss of between $400,000 and $1 million resulting in an offense level of 20 under U.S.S.G. §§ 2B1.1(a)(2) and 2B1.1(b)(1)(H).
- b. That on Count 1, a 4-level enhancement pursuant to § 2B1.1(b)(2)(C) is warranted because the Defendant's direct participation in the offense involved more than 50 victims, but less than 250 victims.
- c. That the 2-level reduction in the applicable offense level pursuant to § 3E1.1(a) for the Defendant's acceptance of responsibility is appropriate, and if the Defendant's offense level is sixteen or more and should the Government find that the Defendant assisted authorities in the investigation or prosecution of her own misconduct by timely notifying authorities of her intention to enter a plea of guilty, thereby permitting the Government to avoid preparing for trial and permitting the Government and this Court to allocate their resources efficiently, the Government agrees to move at sentencing for a further reduction of one level, pursuant to § 3E1.1(b). Determination of whether the defendant met her obligations to qualify for the reduction pursuant to § 3E1.1(b) is at the sole discretion of the United States. The Government's obligation under this subparagraph will become null and void if, between the date of this agreement and the date of sentencing, the Defendant obstructs justice, commits any new federal or state offenses, or otherwise fails to accept responsibility for the offense.

2. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), the Government agrees to recommend a sentence at the bottom of the Guidelines Range.

3. The United States reserves the right to inform the Court and the Probation Office of all facts pertinent to the sentencing process, including all relevant conduct concerning the charged offenses, as well as all other uncharged related criminal activity. The United States may include information concerning the background, character, and conduct of the Defendant, including the entirety of her criminal activities.

4. If the Defendant pleads guilty and is sentenced on Counts 1 and 102, the Government will dismiss the remaining charges, including the forfeiture allegations, and not bring any other charges based on the factual basis.

DEFENDANT'S PROVISIONS

5. The Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Counts 1 and 102 of the Superseding Indictment.

6. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), the Defendant agrees that the Guidelines calculations set forth in Paragraph 1 are correct and apply. The Defendant reserves the right to argue for a downward departure or variance.

7. The Defendant agrees not to commit any other federal, state, or local offense while awaiting sentencing, whether that offense is charged or chargeable or not. Such criminal activity would include, but is not limited to, witness tampering or facilitation of any other criminal activity. The Defendant agrees to provide truthful information to the Probation Office and/or the Court. Determination of whether the Defendant's conduct is a violation of this provision is at the complete discretion of the Government.

8. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(3), the Defendant agrees to pay restitution in the amount of $440,176.56. The Government will not oppose the liability being joint and several with any others who may be found liable because of their involvement in the same conspiracy and related crimes described in the factual basis section of this agreement.

9. The Defendant agrees that this agreement or any judgment, order, release, or satisfaction issued in connection with this agreement, will not satisfy, settle, or compromise the defendant's obligation to pay the balance of any remaining civil liabilities, including tax, additional tax, additions to tax, interest, and penalties, owed to the IRS for the time period(s) covered by this agreement or any other time period.

10. The Defendant agrees that, unless the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts directs her otherwise, all payments made pursuant to the Court's restitution order are to be sent only to the Clerk of the Court for the Middle District of Alabama. With each payment to the Clerk of the Court made pursuant to the Court's restitution order, the Defendant will provide the following information:

- a. The Defendant's name and Social Security number;
- b. The District Court docket number assigned to this case;
- c. Tax year(s) or period(s) for which restitution has been ordered; and
- d. A statement that the payment is being submitted pursuant to the District Court's restitution order.

11. The Defendant agrees to include a request that the Clerk of the Court send the information, along with the Defendant's payments, to the IRS at the following address:

IRS-RACS
Attention: Mail Stop 6261, Restitution
333 W. Pershing Avenue
Kansas City, MO 64108

The Defendant also agrees to send a notice of any payments made pursuant to this agreement, including the information listed in the previous paragraph, to the IRS at that address.

DEFENDANT'S WAIVER OF APPEAL AND COLLATERAL ATTACK

12. Understanding that 18 U.S.C. § 3742 provides for appeal by a defendant of the sentence under certain circumstances, the Defendant expressly waives any and all rights conferred by 18 U.S.C. § 3742 to appeal the sentence. The Defendant further expressly waives the right to appeal the conviction and sentence on any other ground and waives the right to attack the conviction and sentence in any post-conviction proceeding. This waiver does not include the right to appeal on the ground of ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct. In return for the above waiver by the Defendant, the Government does not waive its right to appeal the sentence imposed in the instant case. The Government does not waive its right to appeal any order dismissing the Information, vacating a sentence, or otherwise terminating the prosecution at any stage of the proceedings. Further, the parties agree that nothing in this agreement shall affect the Government's right and/or duty to appeal as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b). However, if the United States appeals the Defendant's sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b), the Defendant is released from this waiver.

FACTUAL BASIS

13. The Defendant admits the allegations charged in Counts 1 and 102 and understands that the nature of the charges to which the plea is offered involves proof as follows:

a. Beginning in or about December 2012 and continuing until at least in or about December 2013, within the Middle District of Alabama and elsewhere, the Defendant did willfully and knowingly conspire with Tracy Mitchell, Sharondra Johnson, Cynthia Johnson, and others to defraud the United States by obtaining or aiding to obtain the payment of false, fictitious, and fraudulent claims, in particular the filing of fraudulent federal tax returns using stolen identities.

b. On various dates in 2013, the Defendant and her co-conspirators unlawfully obtained the means of identification of individuals. Some of the lists came from an Alabama state database and some came from the employee files from a company located in Columbus, Georgia. The Defendant's co-conspirators used those means of identification to file false tax returns and directed the tax refunds to checks. The Defendant obtained fraudulent tax refund checks from her co-conspirators and had those checks cashed by Sharondra Johnson and others. The Defendant maintained some of the means of identification at her home.

c. In 2013, Sharondra Johnson worked at the money center at a Walmart store located in Columbus, Georgia. As part of her employment, Sharondra Johnson cashed checks for customers.

d. In 2013, the Defendant approached Sharondra Johnson about cashing fraudulent tax refund checks issued in the names of other individuals. In exchange, Sharondra Johnson would receive a fee for cashing the tax refund checks.

e. On several dates in 2013, the Defendant had Sharondra Johnson cash fraudulent tax refund checks. To coordinate the cashing of the refund checks, the Defendant sent text messages to Sharondra Johnson and others. In order to conceal the cashing of the checks, the Defendant sent in several different individuals into Walmart to cash the checks. In total, the Defendant caused Sharondra Johnson and others to cash at least 195 refund checks that totaled $440,176.56.

f. On or about September 20, 2013, the Defendant, for the purpose of executing a scheme and artifice to defraud, and to obtain money by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, caused to be placed in a post office and authorized depository for mail matter, matters and things to be sent and delivered by the United States Postal Service ("Postal Service"), and did take and receive matters and things that had been delivered by the Postal Service. In particular, on or about September 3, 2013, Defendant's co-conspirator electronically filed a false electronic federal tax return in the name of "J.So." that requested a tax refund in the amount of $2,489 . On or about September 20, 2013, the Postal Service sent and delivered a United States Treasury federal tax refund check payable to "J.So." and in the amount of $2,489 to the Middle District of Alabama. The Defendant obtained the check in the name of "J.So." from her co-conspirators.

g. On or about September 20, 2013, the Defendant did knowingly use, possess, and transfer a means of identification of an actual person, "J.So.", without lawful authority during and relation to the crime of mail fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341. The Postal Service sent and delivered a United States Treasury federal tax refund check payable to "J.So." and in the amount of $2,489 to the Middle District of Alabama. The Defendant obtained the check in the name of "J.So." from her co-conspirators. The Defendant knew that "J.So." was a real person.

h. On or about October 19, 2013, the Defendant caused Sharondra Johnson and others to cash a federal income tax refund check in the name of J.So." and in the amount of $2,489. The Defendant caused the checks to be cashed at the Walmart store where Sharondra Johnson worked.

i. The actions of the Defendant recounted above were in all respects voluntary, knowing, deliberate, and willful, and were not committed by mistake, accident or any other innocent reason.

e. The Defendant further understands that in entering a plea of guilty herein, the Court may ask questions about the offense to which the plea is entered and further understands that if the Defendant answers these questions under oath, on the record, and in the presence of counsel, which questions and answers would be recorded, that the answers may later be used against the Defendant in a prosecution for perjury or false statement if the answers are not truthful.

f. The Defendant further understands and advises the Court that the Plea Agreement and Addendum to the Plea Agreement and the plea to be entered by the Defendant as a result thereof is voluntary on the Defendant's part and is not the result of any force or threats or of any promises apart from the aforesaid Plea Agreement and Addendum to the Plea Agreement. The Defendant further advises the Court that the Plea Agreement and Addendum to the Plea Agreement is the result of prior discussions between the attorneys for the government, and the attorney for the Defendant, all conducted with the Defendant's authorization, knowledge, and consent.

Further, the Defendant has been advised that if the Defendant pleads guilty, the Court may ask questions about the offense to which the Defendant has pleaded and that if the plea is rejected or later withdrawn, that the answers to such questions may not be used against the Defendant in a civil or criminal proceeding, but that the Defendant's answers may later be used against the Defendant in a prosecution for perjury or false statement if the answers are not truthful.

16. The Defendant understands that the United States Probation Office will prepare a presentence investigation report for the Court. The Probation Officer will consider the Defendant's conduct related to the offense to which the plea is offered, as well as the Defendant's criminal history. The offense level or criminal history category, as calculated by the Probation Officer and determined by the Court, may differ from that projected by the Defendant's counsel or the United States Attorney.

17. This Plea agreement consisting of 17 numbered paragraphs and 13 pages and Addendum to the Plea Agreement is the entire agreement and understanding between the Government and the Defendant. There are no other agreements, promises, representations, or understandings.
